

SPIDERS LOSE TO ROCK HILL

The heavy line of the Collegians, he made one beautiful plunge for twenty yards.

For the spiders, Riley played the most consistent game. He gained ground well, tackled with precision and intercepted five forward passes. Berger, while in the game, lived up to his reputation. His run of thirty yards through the line was only exceeded by a run made by Coburn. The visitors who were off sixty yards, only to be tackled by Irby five yards from the goal.

Perkins, of Richmond, handled his team well. He was on the receiving end of several forward slips, and made three spectacular runs. His performance was marred, however, by the miserable way he handled punts.

Rock Hill was the first to score. The ball was taken over the line by Tallferro on a forward pass. The second touchdown was the result of a corksling run by Staley. Both were earned fairly.

Richmond College Braces.

The brace by which Richmond College won its deserved score was the most remarkable feature of the struggle. Their rooters had given up all hope and were huddled gloomily in the back fifteen yards. Berger and Riley made several neat gains. They were finally held, and Berger punted. Rock Hill tried just one play. It was unsuccessful. They immediately opened up with a forward pass. It was incomplete, but they came back with another which netted twenty-five yards. Another line play was followed by an unsuccessful pass. The next try, however, gained fifteen yards. On a delayed pass Staley gained ten yards. Rock Hill's first real gain by old style play. Three more incomplete passes, following an ineffectual line plunge, gave the locals the ball.

Brilliant Passes.

The second period started with a fumbled down pass that Riley let slip out of his grasp. A Blue and Red player regained the ball for a five-yard gain. After two short gains another forward pass was tried. The oval was caught by a Marylander. Unable to gain by straight football, Rock Hill uncovered some more brilliant passes, one netting thirty yards. The collegians stood firm and took the ball on down.

Rock Hill, by clever work, held the local boys. A costly fumble gave them the oval. After three attempted forward passes, Fucy succeeded in casting the oval into Tallferro's arms for a touchdown. Tallferro kicked the goal.

Again Richmond came back strong. They received the kickoff. Riley got tackle for twelve yards. Berger went through the right side of the line for thirty more, and on the next play gained twelve yards. The first half ended with Richmond in possession of the ball. Score, 7 to 0.

At the opening of the second period the ball was kicked to Coburn, who was downed in his tracks. Riley gained fifteen yards, Coburn five and a forward pass. Perkins to Newton, netted fifteen more. Riley gained five yards. On the next play Rock Hill intercepted a forward pass on their ten-yard line. Fucy punted to center of field. Richmond made several short gains. Berger was hurt circling end from a fake kick formation. Irby took his place. A punt was partially blocked, and the ball was recovered by Rock Hill on the forty-five-yard line. Two incomplete passes were made. The ball was punted to the ten-yard line.

Arenstein's Carefully Made Clothes

Are truly tailor-made, right here in our own shop, every stitch and finish made under our personal supervision. Other tailors depend entirely on "sweat shops"—they have the work done cheaper, still they charge you fancy tailoring prices. It is individual profit that they are after. They resort to "sweat shops," naturally the work and finish is of the inferior kind.

We cut, design and make every garment here. We do not slight the slightest detail. We specialize on the high quality of our materials, expert workmanship, a perfect fit and a pleased customer. Come to us; we will make a tailored man of you. We specialize on these low tailoring prices.

yard line. Three plays gained five yards, and a punt fifteen.

Rock Hill, using Staley to carry the ball, took the oval to the fifteen-yard line. Here Staley circled the left end for the second touchdown, from which Tallferro kicked goal, making the score 14 to 0.

Until the last five minutes the same style of play continued, with neither side making any material progress. Without warning, Richmond changed tactics, and, relying on forward passes, brought the ball down the field so quickly it took the spectators breath. Coburn, and a dandy one for twenty-five yards by Irby, brought the oval to Rock Hill's fifteen-yard line. The game ended with Richmond in possession of the ball. Score, 14 to 0. The line-up:

The local lads received the kick, and again started toward the goal. But they had taken their stand too late. Three beautiful forward passes, interspersed with short gains by Riley and Coburn, and a dandy one for twenty-five yards by Irby, brought the oval to Rock Hill's fifteen-yard line. ## YALE IS SAVED FROM DEFEAT that will be handed down in football history as one of the most sensational in the annual game between these universities.

Captain Pendleton, of Princeton, received a painful injury to his left arm in the last period and was assisted from the field in tears. Several other players received bruises and sprains, but nothing of a serious nature.

Probably the largest crowd that ever saw a football game in this town passed through the gates, but owing to the stalling of the Pennsylvania Railroad special trains near Princeton Junction, thousands did not arrive until the game had started. These latecomers had no chance to enjoy luncheon, and hurried to their seats in anything but good humor.

Princeton is swamped. Hundreds of automobiles rolled into town from early morning, and soon Princeton was swamped by the on-coming hordes. Limited facilities for feeding the big crowd forced many to devour sandwiches, hard boiled eggs, fried oysters and other things in the streets or on the college campus.

The weather was so wintry that the crowd preferred to remain from the wood stadium until long after 1 o'clock, when there was a concerted rush to get inside in time to see the rival eleven line up at 2 o'clock.

Up to the moment of beginning play, Yale ruled a strong favorite at 10 to 7, and the odds remained steady until after Hobey Baker had kicked the goals that put the Tigers ahead, when the first half was concluded. Then the Tigers became slight favorites, although even money was the prevailing basis for wagers, which were few and far between.

While the game was unsatisfactory from a Princeton standpoint, and also did not please the football sharps who prefer to see touchdowns made instead of field goals, all Yale was delighted with the result, even though it was freely admitted that the bulldog had had a narrow escape. When the battle was over, the waiting specialists soon were packed and ready to start for New York and Philadelphia, but for some reason the Yale team was delayed, and later, when the first and second specialists reached the main line at the junction, they were stalled for nearly three-quarters of an hour to allow two regular limited trains to pass them on the way to New York.

Nashville, Tenn., November 16.—Vanderbilt won from Central College of Kentucky with ease with only four regulars in her line-up, the final score being 2 to 0. Central had light, but fast and game play, which distinguished itself by force playing. In every quarter the game visitors made one or more runs down.

A feature of the second quarter was a twenty-five-yard run by Clark, while in the third quarter Shea made a gain of thirty yards. Vanderbilt's touchdowns in the first and second quarters resulted from nicely executed forward passes.

In the fourth quarter, to show that she could, Vanderbilt rushed the ball to Central's thirteen-yard line, and Regular Quarterback Curran was sent in and kicked a drop kick from the twenty-five line. Curran then left the game. None of the Vanderbilt regular backfield played.

WITH PALACE BOWLERS

BY R. H. (JACK) BOWSER.

The games last week in the Palace Duckpin League were close and exciting, all teams showing strength.

The Palace team won two out of three games from the strong Virginia team. The Journal team won three games from the Times-Dispatch boys last week.

The News Leader team won three games from the Alocs Friday night. The Palace Alloys have made arrangements for a woman's club to bowl tenpins on each Wednesday and Thursday night. Some of the fair ones have had lots of practice and they are making some good scores. They will make the men bowlers open their eyes in a few more weeks.

Little boy "Bishop" scored 256 in tenpins last week for high score, and he will soon be a champion. Gayle rounded 254.

Notes of the Players.

Tucker leads in the average column with 105-7.

Anderson fell a few points in his average.

Slaughter, of the Times-Dispatch boys, rolled well.

L. C. Miller showed form.

C. Lohmann, Taylor, Beasley and Gayle, of the Alocs team, produced the Watkins and Miller also bowled in fine form.

Tucker and Anderson, of the Virginia team, were in fine shape.

Cosby and "Easy Mark" Anderson showed up some of the "would-be's."

Carlton was off his stride.

"Dimples" Gilbert and "Irish" Levy, the newly-signed Virginia players, who had tryouts offered them, have been worked down to condition.

Meanly, of the Palace team, was a star.

Just watch Captain Dawson's Times-Dispatchers fool them all in a few weeks. Although his high score last week was 256, he is not fooling himself at their bowling.

F. Lohmann rolled a star game.

Brown and Hudson of the News Leader team, rolled well.

Moore and B. Jordan rolled like champions last week. These two bowlers are expected to be drafted soon.

Games Next Week.

Monday, November 18, at 8:30, Palace vs. Journals.

Wednesday, November 20, at 8:30, Times-Dispatch vs. News Leader.

Friday, November 22, at 8:30, Virginians vs. Alocs.

The Times-Dispatch vs. News Leader.

Game for Wednesday night is postponed till Tuesday night, November 19, at 8 o'clock.

Down the Alleys

BY WHIT WHITMAN.

The past week has been a busy one, as far as the Petersburg bowlers are concerned, as all of the players and teams have put up the best games of their careers, and they continue to make new records each week. The scores made the past week, both by individuals and teams, have reached the high mark. The race is now a pretty one, as all of the teams are bunched together, and it is nip and tuck all the way, and each match proves to be more and more interesting, both to the fans and players. One unique feature is that out of the four clubs, two are tied for first place, while the other two are tied for the cellar position.

Merchants League Makes Showings.

The Merchants League has made a wonderful showing the past week, and has put up some games that far exceed those made by the big league.

If present indications continue for some time, they will give the big fellows a hard fight for first honors. All of the teams in both leagues played their regular scheduled games.
